West Waterford Festival of Food II

31LDRWAT111375

The West Waterford Festival of Food which was due to take place last April 2020 but due to Covid-19 and the social distancing restrictions, the festival had to be postponed. Their Board met last week and have decided to go ahead over two weekends in late September/early October. The idea for extending out the festival timeline is to create events without the same level of crowds. Events will not substantially differ from the original programme. While their funding contract does not lapse until April 2021, approval is sought to deliver the festival programme at a later stage this year.
