To Facilitate cross border activity with Mid and East Antrim

31LDRWAT114013

Waterford LEADER Partnership are delivering a cooperation training programme between 2nd Port Dunmore East Sea Scouts and Carnlough Boathouse part of Mid and East Antrim Borough Council. Both entities are based on the coast and carry out a lot of their activity on water. The 2nd Port Dunmore East Sea Scouts are part of Scouting Ireland and encourage all their young members to learn about sea safety skills and to progress on to sailing a dinghy as well as normal scouting team work duties. The project visits which form an integral part of the project to enable cross learning and the sharing of information and experience have had to be delayed due to COVID-19 and are only now being rescheduled. Owing to the time lag from contract approval to now has necessitated a retendering of costs which has just taken place and has meant a change of supplier for the coach hire element to J.J. Kavanagh & Sons.
